Brad E. Oren, MD installed as Florida Society of Ophthalmology President

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Florida Society of Ophthalmology (FSO), the preeminent professional association for medical and osteopathic doctors who specialize in vision care, installed Brad E. Oren, MD as president at its Annual Meeting, Masters in Ophthalmology 2015, held June 26-28 in Palm Beach, FL.

As FSO president, Dr. Oren will help lead the nonprofit association, which represents more than 500 medical doctors focused on protecting the medical and surgical specialty of ophthalmology. In addition to active participation in legislative advocacy and the dissemination of responsible information to physicians and patients throughout the state, the FSO also provides continuing medical education opportunities.

Dr. Oren is the Medical Director at a private practice in Boynton Beach, FL, where he has worked for more than 15 years. He is a board-certified ophthalmologist and licensed to practice medicine in Florida and New York.

Dr. Oren has published numerous peer-reviewed articles and has been a reviewer for the Journal of Cataract and Refractive Surgery since 2010 and of The Lancet since 1997. Dr. Oren has given numerous scientific and medical presentations and investigations at national meetings including the American Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology (ARVO) and the American Association for Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus (AAPOS).

Dr. Oren received his Bachelor of Arts from Union College, where he graduated with Honors, and his Medical Degree from the University of Miami. He completed his ophthalmology residency and internship at Albany Medical Center in New York before returning to South Florida in 1998. He recently served as the FSO’s Vice President of Advocacy.
